

A million meals for
Zambia's children ...
Help answer God's call!

June 2007

Dear friend,

Right now Feed The Hungry is preparing to send two containers of food into Zambia Africa.

Thousands of Zambians have to rely on support from the U.N. World Food Program. The WFP have literally helped tens of thousands in recent years but a recent drop in funding has meant a drastic cut in food distribution.

The local WFP director, David Stevenson - U.N. World Food Programme (WFP) Country Director in Zambia, made this recent statement:

"In March or April we will be forced to stop distributing food to some of the most disadvantaged people in Zambia -- such as orphans and patients undergoing treatment for AIDS."

These people will have lost their only source of nutritious food and in other words, will have nothing to eat.

Feed The Hungry (FTH) is stepping in the gap with two containers of food and something the WFP doesn't offer - the eternal nourishment of God's Word.

Overland Missions has been in Zambia for 19 years, reaching the furthest corners of the country with the Gospel message. Everywhere they go, they meet with extreme poverty - people pleading for food. Through the widespread network in Zambia, FTH and Overland Missions will get food to the boys and girls most at risk.

The two containers - if friends like you will help us fill them - will feed 3,500 children every day for six months.

To feed ten Zambian children for a month costs only $15!

And as we nourish their bodies, we'll also feed their souls and spirits through the gift of Bibles and Gospel presentations.

The time to help is now. AIDS has orphaned more than 700,000 Zambian children and that number is growing rapidly. Widespread flooding has increased the number of people who need food assistance this year, just as the WFP is forced to cut back.

More than 40 years ago my father, Dr. Lester Sumrall, answered God's call to battle hunger around the world. Since Feed The Hungry began, we've relied on God's people - people just like you - to step out in faith to play a part in ending terrible suffering.

$31,000 is enough to send two containers, more than half a million meals, to Zambia's hungry children this June as the WFP's program cutbacks take effect. Our goal is to get the meals in-country and distributed before the rainy season makes rural areas almost impossible to reach.

Another $31,000 ensures two more containers arrive, later in the year, to maintain the commitments we've made to hungry children. If we can raise more, we'll be able to care for even more young bodies and souls.

Please step out in faith today. Join with your brothers and sisters in Christ by sending another gift now, to provide more than a million meals -and the message of God's love - to Zambia's neediest children.

Thank you for your loving support of hungry children!
