

Feeding EveryChild EveryDay

Because just enough is... Not Enough!

December 2007

Dear friend,

This Christmas season, I wanted to highlight one of our three major outreaches: our ongoing orphanage support program known as EveryChild EveryDay.

Feeding The Hungry

Feed The Hungry was founded twenty years ago to answer the prayers of believers around the world who literally cry out, "Give us this day – our daily bread". With your help, we have answered this call in 94 countries around the world, bringing over $200 million dollars of aid to the people who need it most.

Disaster Relief

This work has developed many strong and fruitful relationships all around the world. When natural disasters strike, we can send aid immediately to these churches and ministries we know and trust. Like in the case of the Boxing Day tsunami, or hurricane Katrina, the Java earthquakes and the Solomon Islands tsunami. In each disaster food and practical supplies were provided along with emotional and spiritual comfort.

Orphanage Support

In recent years, we began EveryChild EveryDay to relieve the daily burden of orphanages and ministries trying to find enough funds to feed their children. Children who have been orphaned by war, disease, and disasters both natural and man-made. Children from poor families, who without the care and protection of Christian ministries, would be desperately needy and hungry.

We began with a simple goal of feeding 1,000 children everyday in 2005. Now, at the end of 2007 we are feeding a handful shy of 15,000 children amongst 14 ministries in 12 countries!

We are helping children in refugee camps with Irene Gleeson in Kitgum Uganda; in orphanages like Charlie Milbrodt's in North Thailand; amongst outreaches to street children like Mercy & Grace in India; and underground ministries in Indonesia and North Korea to name a few.

These children not only receive hot nutritious meals everyday, but are fed spiritually through the ministry of our partners. This Christmas, we are appealing to our faithful partners to help increase our support to feed 25,000 children in 2008.

Christmas Appeal 2007

Liberty Christian Centre in Liberia, is one of the orphanage we have recently committed to support. Children are often brought here in tragic circumstances. With nobody left to care for them, these children are cradled under the compassion of the church.

That should be the end of sad story, but unfortunately the struggle continues. With a non-existent economy, and with such limited resources, churches in Liberia don't have enough to properly take care of each child.

They receive a small portion of rice in the morning. Barely a cup of rice later in the evening. Enough to keep life in their bodies... but only just. The children themselves have virtually nothing. You can imagine this Christmas, their dreams are not for the coolest toys, the latest fashion, or flashy gadgets. They just hope there is enough food for them tomorrow.

This Liberian orphanage depends completely upon others, which is why we included them in our orphanage support program. We can do this because of generous people like you – who have never met them, but love them still.

Your support sends containers of nourishing food, donated by another organisation called Feed My Starving Children. They donate soy-fortified rice meals by the container load... we just need to cover the shipping costs. These dehydrated rice meals are a key component to our EveryChild EveryDay program.

Every $6 received will send 100 hot nutritious meals around the world!

Solid nutrition now, during their most critical development stages, will prevent disease and disability in the future. Children will not only receive generous helpings of nutritious food... but we will share the message of Jesus Christ along with each meal.

You can help! We can't do everything, but we can do something. And together we can make a difference to many in their time of need.

We appreciate all donations to feed the hungry, and regular support will enable us to help more lives. It means support can be increased to our existing partners where necessary, and we can finally commit to other new works in places like, South Sudan, Zambia, Kenya, Nicaragua, and Mexico. We will embrace this challenge, helping children from one place at a time.

We have a lot of work ahead of us in 2008, and we're excited about what God is doing. This Christmas, search your heart and ask God how He would have you participate in EveryChild EveryDay.

On behalf of Peter Sumrall, and everyone here at Feed The Hungry, we want to thank you for your support throughout 2007. You have helped many lives this year, and we greatly appreciate your partnership. Your donations have been...

A fragrant aroma, an acceptable sacrifice, well pleasing to God. And we pray that our God shall supply all your needs according to his riches in Glory in Christ Jesus
