

ANGOLA: EMERGENCY APPEAL
75,000 children turned away daily

February 2008

Dear friend,

Joint Aid Management (JAM), feed close to 200,000 children daily across Angola in Africa. They were devastated at the prospect of having to turn 75,000 children away because they simply didn't have enough food for them.

But God provided, through an anonymous donor who gave us 680 tonnes of dried beans. That's 40 shipping containers worth, and enough to provide 9 million meals!

Another donor has generously paid to ship the beans to Angola. But the beans can't be shipped unless they are repackaged in bulk sacks to satisfy strict customs regulations.

Feed The Hungry has already repackaged and shipped 2 containers of beans to Angola, but this project will require another 38 forty-foot containers to be loaded and sent: and that's where you come in! We need to raise the funds to cover this unexpected cost.

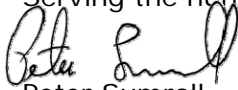

It's absolutely critical to get these beans to Angola now.

The Bible says, "Ask and it will be given to you" (Matthew 7:7). We prayed for an answer to this food crisis in Angola, and God worked through the charity of the donors who provided the beans and paid for the shipping.

Now you can be the final link between these two gifts that will make it possible to feed these 75,000 children for several months. This is our chance to pitch in and help our friends in Angola.

Please help us deliver this life saving food to the hungry. Every dollar counts and is greatly appreciated. May God bless you for your compassion.

Serving the hungry,

Peter Sumrall
President
